

Gourmet gatherings in the heart of Istria

Meaningful connections are often made beyond the meeting table.

Designed for incentive groups, client events, corporate celebrations, and networking gatherings, the Gourmet Package combines business objectives with the flavours, traditions and atmosphere of Istria.

From curated dining experiences and wine tastings to visits to local producers, each element is designed to bring people together through shared experiences and authentic moments. Meetings can be complemented by personalised coffee breaks, themed dinners, and destination-inspired activities that showcase the region's rich culinary heritage.
